

A Far Distant Place (Charnwood Library)

Its hell, its heaven. Its marvellous and cleanses your soul. Its dreadful and fills you with fear you can taste. And there is nothing you on earth to compare with it... This is the Iditarod, the longest and most dangerous race in the world, run in March every year over 1,000 miles of fierce, forbidding terrain through the mountains and snowy wastes of Alaska. It has always been Natus dream to run the race but she has chosen to work, with her fiance, on the oilfields in the north. When she learns of her Inupiat grandmothers death, she knows she must be true to her native culture and return home to prepare for the race...Beautifully researched and wonderfully readable - Birmingham Post.
