Volume 8, The Prophets Part I include Isaiah Jeremiah Lamentations The prophet Isaiah predicted the captivity of both Judah and Israel. However, he prophesied also the return of the exiles and the coming of the Messiah. Isaiah gives captivating description of the Christ nearly five hundred years before Christ actually came. The book of Isaiah is divided into two well defined parts, but its spirit and style seem to be consistent throughout. Jeremiah was divinely ordained a prophet unto the nations even before his birth. He foretold the destruction of the Temple and was charged with blasphemy. He was in prison when Jerusalem finally fell. Jeremiah also wrote the book of Lamentations
