

A Deeper Blue

Sadness has a tendency to run deep, especially for Alexandra Jean Rey who spent most of her living years dealing with survivorship guilt. Raised by her grandmother, Alex allowed few people into her life. She lived one day to the next and often too close to the edge for comfort. But she was smart and strong, and found ways to manage each day as it came. Her decision to leave her career as an animal behaviorist at Florida's H&M Aquarium, followed by the loss of her best friend Andre the same year, tested Alex's resilience. Andre's will left Alex with control of half of Island Water Adventures, a lifeline during a difficult time and the possibility of a new start. Yet life never comes in a neat package. Alex learns she and Andre's partner Sean may lose Island Water Adventures in a will contest. She also discovers that the sound of one woman's laughter will set into motion a series of events that would impact her heart and life forever. Kailyn Montgomery is that woman. Will Kailyn lead Alex to find a deeper blue, or will the past weigh too heavily on both their futures?
