

One Penny (Marked Heart) (Volume 3)

Foolish is the heart that leaves itself open to falling in love. Reckless is the person who steps away from tradition to claim a life of their own. Irreplaceable is the moment one takes the risk. Penny Caffrey seems to make all the wrong choices in life. From the men she dates to her career path; most of what she does is either hidden from or frowned upon by her large Irish family. Seth Chevalier has been labeled a disappointment by his entire family. He has a good job at a large accounting firm that he devotes the majority of his time to. He is used to and comfortable living a solitary life. When her latest boyfriend, the drummer for a local band dumps her, Penny takes a step back to do some self-evaluation and decides to lay off of dating for a while.

Even with an overbearing father, Seth is determined to be his own man and moves into an upscale apartment complex in an effort to prove he is successful. Seths solitary life is thrown completely off track when he moves in next door to Penny and she decides they are going to be friends, whether he likes it or not. Includes C&A Novella He was all the things she really wanted and never bothered to look for in a man. He was also the most stubborn jackass she had ever met. She was an infuriating pain in the ass, and hed be damned straight to hell if he had to spend even one day without her by his side.

Charlotte and Auggie never thought they would fall in love, and certainly not with each other. Looking beyond themselves to see the worth in each other, they found a love that is worth holding onto. But for two stubborn strong willed people like C&A, falling in love is only half the battle. And their road to matrimony is an uphill fight that will test them all the way to the altar.

C&A picks up after Charlottes epilogue and takes you through One Penny from Charlotte and Auggies POV. While there are events that parallel Pennys book, a lot was left out simply because One Penny is Penny and Seths story and I wanted to focus on them. That being said, it is not One Penny all over again, C&A is its own story, it is Charlotte and Auggies novella.
