

Excerpt from Christ the Life and Light: Lenten Readings As the observance of Lent becomes more general, suitable Readings for the season become more and more a necessity, or at least a desideratum. A former book of such Readings, The More Abundant Life, made of selections from the writings of Bishop Brooks, met with so much favor as to warrant the conclusion that a second one, made on the same lines, would not lack a welcome. In all that he wrote and preached, Bishop Brooks was wont to strengthen the point that he was making by a reference to Christ as the Teacher, the Pattern, the Helper, the Redeemer, - in short, as the Life and Light of the world. It is this fact which justifies the title chosen for this - the latest, and probably the last, of the many books published in his name. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
