

After a false murder accusation and a kidnapping causes Arissa to abandon her home in Daer, she is forced to leave behind everything that she cares about. The secrets that she knows about the corrupt General is enough to cripple the fragile society of the land. To ensure that the secrets die with her, the General does everything in his power to end her life and the lives of everyone she loves. Arissa must not only evade those looking to arrest her, but at the same time she must prove her innocence and save her true love from capture.
