

Miriam Auerbach continues her saga with another cant-put-down story filled with unique characters and laugh-out-loud humor. Four and a half stars.--RT Book Reviews Once again, its Harriets job to kick some butt in Boca Raton. Someone is murdering clergy members in Floridas ritzy resort haven--starting with the minister at the gay wedding of private detective Harriet Horowitzs best friends. Suspicion focuses on the drag queens of the Holy Rollers Motorcycle Club and Gospel Choir, who provided the weddings musical entertainment. Harriet--always defending the underdog--is hired to clear the choirs name. Pretty soon a rabbi becomes the next victim, and Harriets lust-buddy, Israeli martial arts instructor Lior Ben Yehuda, is arrested as the prime suspect. Its time for Harriet to climb on her Harley and wreck the pampered peace of the society that used to think of her as just another wealthy Boca babe. Dirty Harriet rides again. Dirty Harriet, Miriam Auerbachs debut mystery novel, won a Romantic Times Reviewers Choice Award. Miriam can only assume that this is because the heroine kills her husband on page one. In a parallel universe, Miriam is known as Miriam Potocky, professor of social work at Florida International University in Miami. She lives in South Florida with her husband and their multicultural canines, a Welsh Corgi and a Brussels Griffon. Visit Miriam at www.miriamauerbach.com.
