According to the doctor, she has at most eighteen months to live. Just before the eighteen month mark, Katies mother vanishes without a trace. In total desperation, Katie and her best friend Chloe go in search of the history behind the mysterious Walsh Family and their magical heirlooms which they feel have some connection with Isabelles disappearance. They discover that Katies mother was magically whisked back in time to be with Lord James Walsh at Bella Rose Manor. There, her mother is living on, cured by the Walsh familys magic. The story continues During Isabelles stay, Reid Walsh becomes captivated with the stories that Isabelle tells of her beautiful daughter Katie in the 20th Century. He finds himself compelled to meet her. After doing so and finding his unfinished manuscript in the Mackenzies costume shop, Reid returns it to his brother James, but not his enchanted bracelet. His unwavering desire to see the woman who is dominating his every waking thought is driving him insane. He returns to see Katie one more time. With the night of the town ball looming ahead, and Katie unable to get Reid Walsh out of her mind, she accepts the offer from Clay Chloes new boyfriends brother to escort her to the ball. Though Reid knows they cant be together, he learns of the beau now taking Katie to the ball and in his jealousy decides he cant stop visiting her, purely for her own protection. The night of the ball arrives and so does an unexpected masked visitor. Later, Katie succumbs to her burning desire for the 19th Century Lord in a moment of white hot passion. Little does she know that her virgin heart will be broken before dawn. The story now begins with Lord Reid Walsh, of Grayson Manor, sent from the past to look for his brothers unfinished manuscript from the 19th Century About The Author Sierra Hunter is a passionate romance writer with six Amazon #1 Best Sellers in both pen names and her real name.
