

Unlikely Blessings: Discovering Happiness Through the Life of Joseph

There is a Joseph in every family. He is an essential force. He may be favored by some family members, but hes often castigated by others. He is the one person in the family who everyone else confides inwho feels responsible to address problems or assume blame for most of the familys drama. Are you Joseph? There are three major questions every Joseph asks: Why is my life so difficult? Why must I always be the responsible one? When will it be my turn? Unlikely Blessings will address these questions with you. Every Joseph is destined to bring about lasting and significant change for himself and others. As you accept your unique role and embrace your destiny, your strength and happiness will astound you. You will see a spiritual headlight shining a path on your entire life.
