

Jesus and His Relationships

This book is a fresh approach to the person and work of Christ in which Martin Goldsmith highlights the significant part Jesus relationships play in Gods revelation. Divided into four parts this book demonstrates that we can learn a great deal about the nature of God the Christian life mission and the nature of the church by studying the relationships Jesus has within the Trinity with his followers his opponents and other contemporaries of his day. These relationships are an essential element of Jesus calling and illustrate the sorts of relationships God desires us to have with himself and our fellow human beings.
