

Midnight Reflections

Midnight Reflections Julia's midnight reflections actually happened at about four in the morning. She was far from home, lonely, watching a handsome man, Robin, sleeping in her bed at the Beverly Hills Hotel. He had put himself in a dangerous situation and was almost badly hurt because of her. Now she was feeling guilty as hell. Julia is placed in a dangerous position herself, working for a man she believes is a murderer. The other mystery is who Robin really is. She's sure he's hiding something from her. Can she trust him? Together they discover information so inflammatory they are forced to flee an influential and dangerous politician - a man with an army of people who will do anything to get in his good graces - even murder.
