

Eyes of Life: Living a Soul Life

I would like to introduce you to my spiritual self-help book entitled EYES OF LIFE. This book is based on scientific research woven together with examples of the authors own life experiences regarding why people should follow the guidance of their soul in order to be healthy and happy. EYES OF LIFE is the authors pathway from an unhealthy and unhappy part of her existence to a transformation into well-being. The message of this book is simple: the soul is the only eternal, spiritual aspect and guide of our existence who is absolutely loyal, reliable, faithful, loving, wise and a very mysterious part of us which never betrays our faith in it. It doesnt matter what kind of life we live and what religion or spirituality we follow, any path we chose should be in harmony with our souls intentions. When we live as a true expression of our soul, we are not capable of creating any diseases or unhappiness for ourselves. How can this be? On the basis of scientific research regarding human biology the author explores why we are not victims of our genes but masters of our faiths and what significant role the soul plays in relation to this issue. The author delves deep into the laws of the universe and explores the energy system of human beings, because all our problems, physical and psychological have their roots in our energy field. Also, the author discusses the controversial topic and makes her conclusion to why a terrible collapse has occurred to such an extremely spiritual country like Tibet.
