

A Reason to Hope

Nicole As the youngest daughter of a wealthy cattle baron in the Montana Territory, she can have everything her heart desires. But, what she desires cant be bought. The man she loves has always loved someone else. In a moment everything changes and shes thrown into a series of choices that determines her entire future. Can her new faith stand strong in the midst of turmoil? Jeremiah Tragedy took him away from his dreams of becoming a doctor. Only a few short months away from graduating from an eastern medical university, he dropped everything to raise his four younger siblings. The woman he loved turned out to be a cruel manipulator and his relationship with God is floundering. He turns to his once-close friend to help him face the future. Can a marriage of convenience born out of tragedy and pain become something more? Nicole and Jeremiah are about to find out there is always A Reason to Hope.
