

The Senior Center: (Small Town Tales 4)

Please note: This story was first published in Small Town Tales. After the loss of her husband, Audrey Williams struggled to move on with her life despite encouragement from her adult children and her best friend. One day she decided to attend a Senior Center function believing she was joining several women in a Euchre card game. Little did she know the cards would fall into place giving her a chance for an exciting new life.
