

Special Times and Gifts

This is a unique, exciting and transformational discipleship course for children, taking them through the fundamentals of the Christian faith in a relational, interactive, and challenging way, always applying to their lives the commands to: Love God Love One Another Love the Lost Concepts that children are not normally exposed to are explained simply. Each book builds on the other into a complete discipleship course with suggestions for putting faith into action. All books in the Living With Jesus series are designed to be used interactively either one-on-one with a parent or other adult or in a small group. Books in this series include: (These are in suggested order.) Welcome to Gods family - The body of Christ Special times and gifts - Baptism, Communion, and the Holy Spirit Talking and listening - Hearing the voice of God Love for me and love for others - The unconditional love of Jesus Strongholds - Strongholds, the soul and freedom What do we choose? - Making kingdom choices Having faith - The life of faith Staying protected - Spiritual warfare Living With Jesus Together 43 weeks of dynamic childrens small group materials. This book complements the Living With Jesus series, which can be taken home for parents or another adult to do with their children used as a part of the small group experience Other resources by Daphne Kirk: Reconnecting the Generations Born for Such a Time as This Heirs Together When a Child Asks to be Baptized When a Child Asks about Communion
