

Starting Over

After a tragic accident Jessica OConnor had to leave everything behind to start a new life. She had run as far away as she could go, which wasn't far but enough that no one knew her name or the accident, other than her cousin Melody who offered to take her in. But when she finally got settled and was ready to build her life, things went from bad to worse. Now she was almost broke and facing homelessness all while being thrown in the arms of the most handsome man she could have set her eyes on. After spending only one night with him she knew she had to get as far away from him as possible, before he learned her secret and would vow to hate her, just as everyone else in her life had done. Jacob Alexander was the local hero and head of the Special Operations task force. He captured the most hardened criminals and chased after the most notorious prison escapees. So how was it that one small woman could leave him week in the knees and begging for more. He had already known what it was to lose at love, so how would he be able to stay clear of this woman when he couldn't stand to be out of sight of her especially after learning her secret?
