

1st John: An exposition of 1st John (The 66 Books)

The ministry of Jesus was to teach and shew the things of the Kingdom of God. So, when Jesus healed someone who was blind it gave some measure of how health issue are handled in that age. If you are blind from birth, the likelihood of ever seeing is small. When Jesus made men and women see, they could not hold back from telling others of their good fortune. How would we feel with this burden lifted from us? On every occasion those healed were overcome with joy that something they could do nothing about was removed just by associating themselves with the Lord Jesus Christ. The lesson is: we all need to associate ourselves with him to be delivered from death, and we should be equally joyful, knowing that forgiveness and the hope of the kingdom is available through him. How did they react in the First Century? How do we react today? We are talking of coming to Zion with songs of everlasting joy upon their heads, they will obtain joy and gladness and sorrow and sighing will flee away. Everything transformed into the garden of God. That is special, and contrasts with what we have now.
