

The Cross in Christian Experience

The Cross and Christian Experience was published by Hodder and Stoughton, London, 1908 and by Richard R. Smith, Inc. New York, 1930. The book contains twenty-five sermons on the Cross that he selected and prepared for publication. The book is dedicated To the men and women of those Christian congregations, who have honored me with their confidence, gladdened me by their affection, and strengthened me, by the testimony of their lives, my faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. Upon reading The Cross and Christian Experience Dr. W. H. Griffith Thomas wrote: Seldom have I read a fresher or more inspiring volume of sermons, and I frankly confess that when once I started it I could hardly put it down. Mind and heart went out to the author in gratitude, and to God in thankfulness for such truly helpful teaching. ... I make bold to say that if the substance of this book were received and reproduced by the ministry of our Churches it would put iron into our blood, heart into our work, and joy into our people. . . .
