

The Greek Myths Lecture Notes: A Companion to the 6-Lecture Video Series by Dr. William J. Neidinger

LECTURE NOTES TO ACCOMPANY THE 6-LECTURE VIDEO SERIES. Dr. William J. Neidinger has prepared a 6-lecture adult education series on video, The Greek Myths. The series begins with a discussion of various ancient and modern theories about what a myth is, then outlines the origin of the Olympian gods. Subsequent lectures explore the deities Athena, Poseidon, Zeus and Dionysos, followed by the stories of the First and Second Heroic Ages. This new volume is a companion to the video series, and comprises lecture notes in outline format. Notes are illustrated with thumbnail color photos, diagrams, maps and charts referenced in the video programs. It is not a stand-alone account of Greek mythology, but is meant to be used as a study guide by viewers of the video series. LECTURE TITLES: 1. The Nature of the Myth 2. The Birth of the Olympians 3. Athena, Poseidon and Zeus 4. Dionysos: Ecstasy and Enthusiasm 5. The First Heroic Age 6. The Second Heroic Age
