

The Heart Key

Tabitha Anderson is an artist, a romantic, and a woman of great imagination, yet nothing prepared her for the greatest upheaval of her life. The adventure begins when Tabitha visits a strange man in response to his advertisement seeking meteorites. When the FBI brings Tabitha in for questioning she learns that the man she just visited in response to his ad is under surveillance because he's suspected of being the culprit behind the disappearances of several people, though there is no proof, no evidence. Instead of staying as far away as possible from the strange, possible serial killer of a meteorite collector, Tabitha finds herself in the middle of the FBI investigation in search of their missing FBI agent. In fact, she becomes a victim of the strange man's dark secret, a doorway into another dimension where it seems that everyone is out to get her one way or another.
