Excerpt: ... Reply of the Visitors to the Remonstrance. To the M. A. Committee, University of Virginia: Gentlemen:--Your protest against the changes made by the Board of Visitors in the requirements for the degree of Master of Arts of the University of Virginia, was duly received by the Rector and laid before the Visitors at their last meeting in November, 1891. This protest was signed by W. F. Taylor, M. A., as Chairman of the Committee, by thirty-four other Masters of Arts, and by eight young gentlemen, who are now applicants for the M. A. degree. The Board of Visitors was unable at that time to give the protest any consideration, as the November meeting was suddenly called to deal with business of a practical and pressing nature, which claimed the whole attention of the Rector and Visitors up to the hour of adjournment. This will account for the delay in replying to the protest, which has since that time had the most respectful and careful consideration of the Visitors. The paper seems to the Visitors to have been hastily written under a misapprehension as to the real character and scope of the changes made in the requirements for both the M. A. and B. A. degrees. As the Visitors believe that these changes, if clearly understood, must claim the hearty support of all true friends of the University, they shall not content themselves with a simple refusal to reconsider their action, but most cheerfully lay before your Committee their reasons for having ordered these changes, and for now declining, after maturely weighing your protest, to recede from steps taken after the most cautious deliberation by a unanimous vote of the Board. To the mind of the Visitors, it has long been a source of
