

The Making of Real Men

Our society has lost its local vertical! Maleness is viewed as an undesirable trait, a genetic mutation. Truth has been bent, twist, and distorted beyond recognition, shaped into what we want it to be. Many have sought to blur the line between men and women, masculine and feminine. They hold in their hands Jack Sparrows broken moral compass, leading them where their hearts desire. The young men of this generation are caught in the cross-hairs of an enemy that wants to destroy them, neutralize them, or at least take them off the front lines of battle. They desperately need our help: fathers discipling sons and older men mentoring younger men. But this mission is challenging, even intimidating. How can we accomplish it? This discipleship manual is the result of years of in-the-trenches, intensive mentoring of the next generation. Growth in areas such as working hard, freedom from lust, overcoming insecurities, being filled with integrity, pursuing God with a passion, building godly friendships, and walking in ones divine destiny are necessary steps to becoming real men who stand against the tide of a feminizing culture and change this world by the power of Gods truth and a transformed life. Together we can rescue this generation one discipling relationship at a time.
