

Dreams to Give

Growing up in an Italian American Community in New York during the Thirties, Lucy Farentino knew what was expected of women in her family. They became dutiful wives and mothers. Never did she expect to find the passion the charming Mario DiPeri brought into her life, nor the tragedy his successful career as a disk jockey would create once they were married. Marios infidelity and gambling forced Lucy to create a new life with their child, she sought a glamorous career of her own and turned to another man. But thoughts of Mario and the love they once had haunted her.
